

To our valued patrons.

During these uncertain times, please enjoy your library books for an extended period. We are asking you to please keep your books at home.

Provincial libraries are working together to create and incorporate a safe handling procedure for returning library materials.

Thank you.

Chetwynd Public Library

